

Construction Update

Trout Brook Nature Sanctuary and Regional Trail Week of April 14, 2014

Construction to Start Again! The restroom building, the parking lot and trail should be completed by early June. Art installations and final site grading set the stage for native plant restoration work to begin in May. Volunteer planting events and restoration work will continue through the summer and fall.

Photos were taken in late November 2013.

