9	This park gets a lot of community use, especially on the sport courts. I think the fact that there are always people there playing is its defining character.	12/8/2020 7:03 PM
10	I'll leave that to others :-)	12/8/2020 7:02 PM
11	Absolutely!! The old neighborhood logo and color scheme that was the gift of the Hamline Park Planners back around 1990 when they designed the existing park. Some of these folks are now our senior citizens and live in the neighborhood. Honor their contributions by enhancing the existing logo (diamond inscribed in a circle) and perhaps a plaque recognizing them as a part of an art gallery kiosk that displays work by emerging artists who live in the neighborhood, especially senior citizen artists. The new park design is nice for families with young kids, but there is very little in the proposed design to attract seniors. We need the park to be intergenerational.	12/7/2020 1:53 PM
12	The Historic Rec Center. Viewing space for Snelling Ave - a main street in St. Paul. Within a few minutes walk of many residents.	12/7/2020 1:15 PM
13	The weird statue and rec center are distinctive. Also, it's home for a lot of St Paul families right now (in tents). I'd love to see that respected and enhanced.	12/6/2020 3:36 PM
14	Community center	12/2/2020 2:52 PM
15	The sign to the park	12/2/2020 9:10 AM

18	The stone sculpture on the corner creates the identity of the park for me.	12/1/2020 11:10 AM
19	Building, basketball court and futsal court. The basketball court especially is a gathering place and well used. Ways to make it even more inviting? Or expand it?	12/1/2020 9:19 AM
20	The cajibracan sculpture, the cap wiggington building as a backdrop.	11/30/2020 10:50 PM
21	I think the change will be good to the playground	11/30/2020 9:23 PM
22	The location and history of the building there are great.	11/30/2020 8:13 PM
23	It has something for everyone. We need to spread out the space so everyone has room to be there.	11/30/2020 8:09 PM
24	It's a park that caters to all ages - from toddlers to teens and young adults. More seating and picnic benches will make it better suited for elders, as well, and will make it a truly inter-generational park.	11/30/2020 4:05 PM
25	Peanuts history!	11/30/2020 3:08 PM
26	The attractiveness of the amenities and its neighborhood location. It would be nice to see those amenities enhanced with new ones especially interactive art/gardens	11/30/2020 2:46 PM
