

NAME OF FUND: Community Development Block Grant (CDBG)

SOURCE: U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development

ELIGIBLE USES: CDBG is a flexible funding program provided to cities, with a primary objective of "the development of viable urban communities, by providing decent housing and a suitable living environment, and expanding economic opportunities, principally for persons of low and moderate income."

CDBG is primarily a "bricks and mortar" program, however funds may be used for a variety of activities in accordance with program regulations. Included are:

- | | | |
|-----------------|------------------|------------------------|
| * acquisition | * disposition | * public improvements |
| * relocation | * clearance | * economic development |
| * accessibility | * rehabilitation | |

All CDBG programs and projects must meet eligibility and national objective requirements. Eligibility means the activity must be specifically listed as eligible in the regulations. National objective means the activity must either: 1) benefit low and moderate income persons; 2) eliminate slums and blight; or 3) meet a particular urgent need. All CDBG activities also need to be in compliance with the goals and priorities set forth in the City's 5-Year Consolidated Plan and Annual Action Plan:

<https://www.stpaul.gov/departments/planning-economic-development/consolidated-plan-2015-2019>

As a general rule, CDBG funds may not be used as a substitute for city supported programs. In addition, listed as specifically ineligible are:

- * buildings used for the general conduct of government.
- * general government expenses, including those required to carry out regular government responsibilities.
- * improvements which are not permanently affixed
- * general operating maintenance expenses.
- * political activities.
- * purchase of furnishings, personal property.
- * new housing construction^a
- * income payments, mortgage subsidies, down payments.

For additional information on the city's participation in the CDBG program, please contact Beth Ulrich (651-266-6689) or Tchu Yajh (651-266-6592).

^a Cities may not construct new housing, but may participate in projects with neighborhood non-profits which meet specific requirements (CBDOs), as provided for in the program regulations.