AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PROGRAM REGISTRATION NOTICE

Section 183.04 of the St. Paul Legislative Code and the Rules Governing Affirmative Requirements give the City of St. Paul the authority to monitor contractors' affirmative action and equal employment opportunity efforts through the City's Affirmative Action Plan (AAP) when total accumulated contract awards meet or exceed $50,000 within a twelve month period.

All entities receiving City fund for construction project must include in the contracts or agreements with all subcontractors the Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Contract Specifications requiring the subcontractors to file an Affirmative Action Program.

The AAP is a combination of policies and procedures a company utilizes to prohibit discrimination and promote equal employment opportunities for women, minorities and people with disabilities. The AAP shall contain information on a company's employment practices, policies, program and statistics regarding the composition of the company's workforce.

The City of Saint Paul Department of Human Rights and Equal Economic Opportunity has developed a form for companies to use when registering for certification and recertification of its AAP.

Please fill out the attached registration form and return to the City of St. Paul along with the required $75.00 registration fee. Checks may be made out to the City of St. Paul.
