2. NO PERSON SHALL SERVE AS A TEMPORARY EMPLOYEE MORE THAN 1040 WORKING HOURS IN A FISCAL YEAR. No person may work in excess of 1040 hours unless the Human Resource Director approves such extension prior to the use of the full 1040 hours.
3. A person on a temporary permit is not entitled to City benefits such as sick leave, vacation time and in most cases no holiday pay. Temporary positions are excluded from membership in a Defined Benefit Plan with PERA.
4. The fact that a temporary employee is actually performing the duties of a certain position does not give that employee any preference with the City/hiring authority when an examination is announced.
 - A temporary employee must rank high enough on the eligible list based on overall examination score to be reached for certification for an interview for a possible permanent position.
 - Permanent City employees who have promotional rights must be appointed ahead of all candidates on an eligibility list without promotional rights.
 - Time worked on a temporary permit is not credited towards salary increases or accruing promotional rights if a temporary employee is appointed to a permanent position.
5. If a list of qualified candidates based on an examination is established after a temporary appointment is made, these candidates may have preference over those who are not on a list for a temporary permit.
 - If a layoff list (other than for a seasonal position) is established, preference for temporary permits may be offered to permanent employees, i.e., if a temporary employee is holding a temporary permit, a permanent employee on layoff may be offered that permit, and you will be released from employment.
6. Announcements of upcoming examinations are posted in the Office of Human Resources. However, in order not to miss a particular examination in which you are interested, please call weekly the Office of Human Resources 24-hour job line at 266-6502. Form W-4 (2017)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2017 expires February 15, 2018. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note: If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you can't claim exemption from withholding if your total income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions don't apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you aren't exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2017. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

City of Saint Paul Workplace Conduct Policy

A Policy Against Discrimination, Violence, Harassment, and Offensive Behavior in the Workplace

It is the policy of the City of Saint Paul to maintain a respectful work and public service environment. The City of Saint Paul will maintain a work and public service environment free from discrimination, violence, harassment, and offensive behavior. The City of Saint Paul will not tolerate retaliation or intimidation directed toward anyone who makes a complaint or participates in an investigation under this policy. This policy applies to each and every employee and official of the City of Saint Paul, including the Mayor, City Council members, and members of boards and commissions. The City of Saint Paul will not tolerate such behavior by or toward any employee or officer. Any employee or officer of the City of Saint Paul who engages in such behavior is subject to consequences, up to and including termination.

DEFINITIONS

Discriminatory behavior includes inappropriate remarks about or conduct related to an employee's race, color, creed, religion, national origin, disability, sex, marital status, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, or status with regard to public assistance, Veteran's status, or any other reason protected by local, state, or federal law, ordinance or regulation.

Violent behavior includes the use of physical force, harassment, intimidation, or abuse of power or authority when the impact is used to control by causing pain, fear or hurt. Violent behavior also includes verbal abuse and/or acts, words, comments, or conditions that would lead a person to reasonably believe a violent act could occur.

Harassing behavior includes words or conduct that is severe or pervasive, and that a reasonable person would find abusive.

Offensive behavior includes words or conduct that a reasonable person would find reprehensible, although the conduct is neither severe nor pervasive.

Other behavior prohibited by this policy also includes requests to engage in illegal, immoral or unethical conduct.

Conduct includes acts and the dissemination or display of discriminatory, violent, harassing or offensive material at work, at work-related functions, or in work vehicles, computers, lockers, cubicles, emails, other written or electronic documents, and other work locations or functions. It also includes the dissemination or display of such material if it is located on an employee's personal equipment, like PDAs and cellphones, if that material is displayed or disseminated at work. Words and conduct prohibited by this policy can include discriminatory, harassing or offensive:

- Remarks, slurs, epithets, or jokes;
 - Material displayed or disseminated in pictures, posters, cartoons or written or electronic communications, including emails, websites, social media posts, texts, and all other forms of communication; or
 - Impeding movement, blocking, or intimidating conduct and acts.

Sexual Harassment. One specific kind of discriminatory and offensive behavior is sexual harassment. Sexual harassment, which can consist of a wide range of unwanted and unwelcome sexually-directed behavior, is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- Submitting to the conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or of obtaining public services;
- Submitting to or rejecting the conduct is used as the basis for an employment decision affecting an individual's employment or the delivery of public services; or
- Such conduct has the purpose or results of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or public service environment.

Behavior prohibited by this policy can include unwanted or unwelcome:

- Sexual remarks, jokes, slurs or compliments;
- Sexual innuendo or propositions;
- Sexually-suggestive facial expressions, leering or ogling;
- Display or dissemination of sexually oriented material in pictures, posters, cartoons or written or electronic communications, including emails, websites, social media posts, texts, and all other forms of communication;
- Kissing, touching, or other sexual physical contact; or
- Impeding movement, blocking, or intimidating conduct and acts.

All sexually harassing behaviors prohibited by this policy have not been explicitly covered herein. The examples used are for illustrative purposes and are not meant to be all-inclusive.

Retaliation is the commission of an adverse action towards an employee who has either filed a complaint against or participated in an investigation of a complaint by one against whom a complaint was filed. Retaliation can be blatant or it can be subtle.

Intimidation is behavior that induces fear in another person through threats, insults, badgering, bullying or aggressive behavior.

(All behaviors prohibited by this policy have not been explicitly covered herein. The definitions used are for illustrative purposes and are not meant to be all inclusive.)

REPORTING AND SUPERVISORY RESPONSE

Any person who feels he or she is being subjected to discriminatory, violent, harassing, or offensive behavior of any kind should object to the behavior, and shall report the behavior to their supervisor or to the Human Resources Director as soon as possible. In the case of violent behavior, the incident must be reported immediately after the incident. An employee that feels they have been subjected to such conduct by a non-employee third-party, such as a vendor or members of the general public, should report the conduct in the same manner.

Any supervisor who receives a complaint of discriminatory, violent, harassing or offensive behavior or who has reason to believe that such behavior is occurring shall report these concerns and forward the entire complaint to their Department or Office Director or to the Human Resources Director. A supervisor should not make an independent determination as to the validity of a complaint. A supervisor who fails to report the concerns as provided for in this paragraph is subject to consequences, up to and including termination of employment.

It is a violation of this policy to report a malicious or knowingly false claim.

INVESTIGATION AND RESOLUTION

All complaints of discriminatory, violent, harassing or offensive behavior, retaliation, intimidation or filing a false or malicious claim will be investigated promptly, fairly, and completely. The facts shall determine the response to each complaint. Each situation will be handled as discreetly as possible consistent with applicable law.

The City of St. Paul will take prompt and effective remedial action to resolve complaints under this policy. The City of St. Paul may take immediate steps, at its discretion, to protect the complainant, other employees, or members of the public pending the completion of the investigation. Resolution of complaints can include, but is not limited to, an apology, transfer, direction to stop the offensive behavior, counseling or training, verbal or written warning, suspension with or without pay, or termination of employment.

In the event that offensive behavior recurs, it should immediately be reported to the appropriate Department or Office Director or to the Human Resources Director.

(Revised July 26, 2017)

The foregoing is a statement of policy and is not intended by the City of Saint Paul to create a contract. The City of Saint Paul reserves the unilateral right to amend, rescind and otherwise modify the foregoing policy.
