

2017 PLANNING COMMISSIONER BIOS

AQUANETTA ANDERSON – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2017 – current term expires 2018

360 Colborne Street, Saint Paul 55117

Ward 5 District Council 6

Aquanetta Anderson resides in Ward 5. She works for Saint Paul Public Schools as Project Coordinator for the Parent Academy. The flexible nature of her work allows her the time to dedicate to the Planning Commission. She is active in many community groups (African American Leadership Council, International Association for Public Participation, National Alliance of Black School Educators, Education Minnesota, Saint Paul Federation of Teachers) and chairs the site council for Crossroads Science and Montessori Elementary School. Aquanetta brings a vast network with her and experience tackling projects collaboratively or on her own. She says she tends to be very organized.

ANNE DEJOY – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2014 – current term expires 2019

965 Payne Avenue, Saint Paul 55130

Ward 6 District Council 2

Anne DeJoy has more than 25 years' experience in community-based economic development. For ten years, DeJoy served as the Executive Director of the Riverview Economic Development Association (REDA). She was appointed as an Assistant to the Mayor in 1999 where she served under two administrations. DeJoy is an alumna of Middlesex College in New Jersey where she studied Marketing Art and Design. She received training in Economic Development and Real Estate Finance from the National Development Council (NDC) and completed Economic Development Strategies training by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). DeJoy received a proclamation from Governor Carlson for her leadership on the Economic Development Committee for the Chicano Latino Affairs Council. She has participated in panel discussions focused on economic development and neighborhood planning and has served on numerous boards and committees including the West Side Citizen's Organization, Saint Paul Riverfront Corporation, Mayor's Committee on Cultural Relations, Neighborhood Justice Center and the Payne Arcade Business Association and others. DeJoy is currently the Director of Commercial Development for the East Side Neighborhood Development Company, Inc.

DAN EDGERTON – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2012 – current term expires 2018

1157 Como Blvd. West, Saint Paul: 55103

Ward 5 District Council 10

Dan Edgerton leads the Water Resources Team in the Saint Paul office of Stantec, a consulting engineering and planning firm. The focus of his work is infrastructure planning and sustainable stormwater management. Dan received his B.S. and M.S. in Civil and Environmental Engineering from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He and his family have lived in the Como Park neighborhood for the past 26 years.

KRIS FREDSON – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2016 – current term expires 2019

333 Warwick Street, Saint Paul 55105

Ward 3 District Council 14

Kris Fredson is the Political Director for the Minnesota AFL-CIO —the state's largest labor federation representing more than 300,000 union members. Fredson is responsible for managing campaigns in support of Minnesota AFL-CIO-endorsed candidates and legislative priorities, such as the successful 2014 campaign to raise and index Minnesota's minimum wage. Fredson served as Deputy Chief of Staff for Mayor Chris Coleman from 2006-2010. Prior to working for Mayor Coleman, Fredson worked as an organizer for the Service Employees International Union and U.S. Senator Paul Wellstone's 2002 campaign. Fredson graduated with a bachelor's degree in Social Studies Education and Political Science from Hamline University in 2001. Fredson has lived in Saint Paul since 1996.

TAQEE KHALED – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2016 – current term expires 2019

1750 Yankee Doodle Road, Eagan 55104

Ward 4 District Council 11

Taqee Khaled is a lifelong Minnesotan and a resident of the Hamline-Midway community. He is a former healthcare management consultant and currently a corporate strategist at Blue Cross Blue Shield of Minnesota. He attended the University of Minnesota where he studied neuroscience and epidemiology.

Taqee is a passionate believer in the subtly expansive role of place in modifying lived experience, (positively and negatively), for all people - especially in terms of population health and well-being. He spends his free time with his family and coaching soccer.

WILLIAM LINDEKE – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2012 – current term expires 2018

148 West George Street, #7 Avenue, Saint Paul: 55107

Ward 2 District Council 3

Bill Lindeke is a PhD candidate at the University of Minnesota Department of Geography, working on bicycle transportation, urban planning, and public space. He has taught classes on the history of public space in US cities, global cities, and biogeography. He works with Streets.mn (a local planning and urbanism website), Civic/Media-Minnesota (a local public affairs media organization), and KFAI radio.

Bill has an avid interest in jazz and baroque music and baseball ritual, and is the sole proprietor of the Twin City Sidewalks website, named one of the Twin Cities' top 11 blogs by WCCO. He was born in Minneapolis and grew up in Mendota Heights. He has lived in St. Paul's North End since 2004.

KYLE MAKARIOS – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2013 – current term expires 2019

700 Olive Street, Saint Paul, 55130

Ward 1 District Council 8

Kyle Makarios is the Director of Government Affairs for the North Central States Regional Council of Carpenters. A resident of Saint Paul since 1995, Kyle graduated from Macalester College with a bachelor's degree in History. He currently is active in a number of community organizations including as the secretary/treasurer of the Minnesota Housing Partnership, a leaseholder of the Rondo Community Land Trust, and a member of the Dean's Advisory Council at the Hubert H. Humphrey School of Public Affairs. He and his wife Erin have two children.

MELANIE MCMAHON – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2014 – current term expires 2020

1266 Scheffer Avenue, Saint Paul, 55116

Ward 3 District Council 15

Melanie McMahon is a long time St. Paul resident, and has lived for the past decade in the Highland Park neighborhood. She is an attorney who has worked in private practice, at the Rider Bennett law firm, and in the public sector, at the Minnesota House of Representatives. She received her bachelor's degree from the College of St. Benedict and her law degree from the University of St. Thomas School of Law.

Melanie is involved in her community as Representative on the Highland District Council and has also served on the Long Range Capital Improvement Budget Committee of St. Paul. She enjoys running and biking along the river and spends a lot of time with her husband and children at all the great parks and Rec Centers in St. Paul.

KATHY MOUACHEUPAO – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2016 – current term expires 2018

570 Asbury Street, Ste. 207, Saint Paul 55104

Ward 1

District Council 8

Kathy Mouacheupao is the Program Officer for Creative Placemaking with the Twin Cities Local Initiatives Support Corporation (TC LISC). She lives in the Summit-University neighborhood and currently serves on three organizational boards: the Hmong Museum, a newly incorporated organization that recognizes and acknowledges the intersections of all things Hmong; the Metropolitan Regional Arts Council (MRAC), a nonprofit that increases access to the arts in 7-county metropolitan area communities by providing information, organizational support and grants and; the MN Association of Museums, which exists to provide a forum for individuals who work in and with museums throughout the state.

CHRISTOPHER OCHS – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2011 – current term expires 2020

850 Dayton Avenue, Saint Paul 55104

Ward 1

District Council 8

Christopher Ochs is a twenty-one year resident of Ward 1 Saint Paul where he and his wife are raising their young family of four children. He is an award-winning landscape designer with Windsor Companies; holds a Bachelors degree in Environmental Design, two Master degrees from the University of Minnesota in Landscape Architecture and Urban & Regional Planning; and has served the Dist 8 Planning Council, Selby Area CDC, and the American Society of Landscape Architects. Chris is well traveled and draws a considerable amount of geographical and cultural experiences from visiting or residing in bustling cities and rural villages across the globe. He hopes his experience and sense of community will contribute to the well-being of the City of Saint Paul.

TREVOR OLIVER – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2011 – current term expires 2020

2021 Margaret Street, Saint Paul 55119

Ward 7

District Council 1

Trevor Oliver is research consultant for the majority caucus at the Minnesota House of Representatives. Prior to taking that position, Trevor practiced municipal and land use law at Kelly & Lemmons, a Saint Paul law firm. Trevor received a bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago and obtained his law degree from the University of Minnesota. He lives on St. Paul's Eastside with his wife and three children.

ADRIAN PERRYMAN – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2017 – current term expires 2019

1282 Concordia Avenue, Saint Paul 55104

Ward 4

District Council 11

Adrian Perriman is a Ward 4 resident. He served on the Midway Stadium Task Force and works at Concordia University in Saint Paul as Assistant Director of Academic Advising and previously worked at Admission Possible. He has been active on other community boards as well, such as the Snelling/Midway Community Advisory Committee and other non-profits. He believes that in Saint Paul, there is room for expansion, but also the ability to do that and maintain livability – that there's room for peace and quiet and opportunity for expansion for businesses and entrepreneurs. He believes in "long term planning, not quick fixes." He's also focused on creating good spaces for children in Saint Paul.

LUIS RANGEL MORALES – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2017 – current term expires 2020

500 Laurel Avenue, Saint Paul 55102

Ward 3

District Council 14

Luis Rangel Morales is a Staff Attorney and Director of Community Outreach for the Neighborhood Service Center ("NJC"). NJC is a non-profit criminal defense organization that helps low income community members receive criminal defense services in Ramsey, Dakota, and Washington county. Mr. Rangel Morales graduated summa cum laude from the University of St. Thomas and cum laude from the University of Minnesota Law School.

JOHN REICH – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2017 – current term expires 2018

1822 Jefferson Avenue, Saint Paul 55105

Ward 3 District Council 14

John Reich is a Ward 3 resident and Director of Gov't Relations at Winthrop and Weinstine. He has been involved in the Saint Paul community for the 11 years he has been a resident. His interest in the Planning Commission is "in continuing to grow St. Paul in a way that brings vitality to the city while also keeping the character that makes it such a great place to live." Prior to his current job, he served as the Public Relations Officer and the Director of Government Relations for MNsure, the state health insurance marketplace. Before that he was an assistant Commissioner at led the Minnesota Department of Commerce where he led the Government Affairs Department. He has prior experience serving on the Neighborhood STAR Board.

ELIZABETH (Betsy) REVEAL – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2011 – current term expires 2020

534 Superior Street, Saint Paul 55102

Ward 2 District Council 9

Betsy Reveal returned to St. Paul in 2009, after working in various American cities and abroad. She served as the chief budget officer, chief financial officer, or chief operating officer in Washington D.C., Philadelphia, PA., Seattle, WA, and the Kennedy School at Harvard, Amtrak and the United Nations Foundations. For the past fifteen years she has maintained a national and international consulting practice. She served as an ex-officio member of Planning Commission in Philadelphia and worked closely with Planning Departments and Commissions in Seattle and Washington, D.C.

TERRI THAO – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2011 – current term expires 2018

2314 University Avenue, Ste. 18, St. Paul 55106

Ward 6 District Council 2

Terri Thao is a program officer at Nexus Community Partners, a non-profit community building intermediary. At Nexus, Terri runs the Boards and Commissions Leadership Institute (BCLI) which trains and places participants on publically appointed boards or commissions with the goal to advance equity in the Twin Cities region. Terri is an active community volunteer, serving on the boards of the Asian Economic Development Association, CommonBond Communities and the F.R. Bigelow Foundation. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in International Relations and Russian and a Master's Degree in Public Policy, both obtained from the University of Minnesota.

WENDY UNDERWOOD – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2014 – current term expires 2020

212 Colborne Street, Saint Paul 55102

Ward 2 District Council 9

Wendy Underwood lives in the West Seventh neighborhood of Saint Paul. She is currently a Director of County Relations for the Minnesota Department of Human Services. Wendy also served as Director of Government Affairs for the City of Saint Paul and held a variety of leadership roles at Target Corporation. Wendy is currently a board member of the Community Reporter, a monthly neighborhood newspaper, and serves on various state and local community advisory boards. Wendy and her husband, Darren Tobolt, enjoy volunteering in the neighborhood and working on projects with their 1882 Victorian home.

LUE VANG – Appointed to Planning Commission in 2017 – current term expires 2020

1081 Minnehaha Avenue East, Saint Paul 55106

Ward 7 District Council 4

Lue Vang is currently at The Foundation for Children's Hospitals and Clinics of Minnesota where he supports physicians, directors, and managers with their program funding. In addition, he provides monthly financial reports on contributions, capital and program supports, and restricted funds to the management team. He is actively involved in the community. He sits on the board of directors for Saint Paul Neighbor Networks (SPNN) as Vice President. Prior to SPNN, he sat on the boards for Youthprise and Center for Hmong Arts and Talent.