Construction is happening for the Jackson Street Phase III Project

Phase I 14th Street to University Avenue will be substantially completed by mid-November
Phase II 11th Street to 14th Street will start in the spring of 2018

Date:
September 26, 2017

What is happening?
Street reconstruction is happening on Jackson Street from 11th Street to University Avenue.

When is it happening?
Work is expected to begin October 2nd. Construction will halt for the winter during the month of November — weather-permitting — and resume in the spring of 2018.

How will it impact you?
There will be road closures and traffic changes. Please be mindful of signage and detours.

Benefits of the project:
Smoother roadways, upgraded lighting, and upgraded utilities.
