Building Permit Application Information for Homeowners

If you are a Homeowner and you would like to pull a building permit acting as your own general contractor, the following items are required:

- 2020 Building Permit Application (note: electronic plan review is not currently available for residential projects)
- Affidavit for Homeowner
- Plans are required for remodeling projects that consist of, but are not limited to, creating new openings, framing new walls, changing bathroom fixture locations, decks, landings and stairs.
- Requirements for new detached garages can be found here.
- Plan requirements for new homes and additions can be found here.

Applications and documents are accepted via mail, a drop-box at the office, fax or email.

For additional information see the Applications and Information Page or contact Plan Review.
